Free Python and Django workshops for women on Oct. 10, 2015 in Pittsburgh

About

Django Girls Pittsburgh is a free, one-day workshop for 30 people about building your first application using HTML, CSS, Python and Django. The workshop consists of two parts: installation party in the evening and a the full day of coding. Attendees work in small groups of 3 with a coach dedicated to each group. Coaches voluntarily help us in their free time.

Our goal is to bring more amazing women into the world of technology and increase diversity in the Python and Django communities. We believe that technology is for people and everyone should be able to build it. We are making technology more approachable by creating simple tools and resources designed with empathy.

Target

30 underprivileged women who never programmed before but are motivated to get into field

Date & place

Full day, Oct. 10, 2015
Pittsburgh, Berlin

(We are still looking for a venue. Talk with us about hosting!)
